James-Pratt-Marcy-Miller Four Prospective Candidates Elected Acadia Social Credit Convention

Ninety-one delegates and many visitors attend Nominating Convention held in Oyen Saturday, May 4.

Ninety-one delegates from the various "study groups" of the Social Credit League of Acadia Provincial Constituency, and over two hundred visitors attended the nominating convention held in Oyen theatre last Saturday.

The convention got under way early in the afternoon when nominations for 12 prospective candidates were received. Before the balloting commenced those nominated took the platform and gave brief addresses. The voting was then proceeded with and after the eighth ballot a final vote was taken to place the four candidates in order of choice. Mr. N. B. James, Cloverleaf, being placed first; Mr. Thos. Pratt, Helmsdale, second; Mr. N. F. Marcy, Chinook, third and Mr. W. V. Miller, Oyen, fourth. Only a few points separated the last three named. The result of the ballots is given in tabulated form below.

The prospective candidates and the seven constituency delegates left for Calgary the following day to go before the Aberhart selection committee on May 6.

Silver Jubilee is Celebrated in Oyen

Oyen joined in the Empire wide silver jubilee celebration, Monday, commemorating King George's twenty-fifth year of reign over the British Empire with appropriate addresses delivered at the school by Mayor Morrison and Mr. R. J. Scott, Inspector of Schools. Sports were engaged in by the young people and at night the Boy Scouts had a bonfire at the golf course, and sent up a royal salute of twenty-one rockets. The morning was bright and sunny, but the weather turned chilly and windy in the afternoon. In spite of the disagreeable weather at night there was a large crowd out to see the bonfire and fireworks.

In the morning a special service of thanksgiving was held in All Saints' church, the Boy Scouts attending in a body.
